

Under the Tent of Abraham

An Interfaith Experience for Children ages 8-12 that teaches peacemaking, emotional awareness, non-violent conflict resolution while celebrating the shared heritage and unique differences of the Abrahamic Religions (Judaism, Christianity, and Islam). Children will celebrate their own religious identity while learning about the religious identity of others. We will have field trips, special service projects, fun activities - and time to make new friends!

August 8-12 -- 8:30 AM-4:30 PM

Hosted this year by First Congregational Church

2201 Woodlawn Ave, Boise, 83702

Suggested donation of $40 per child to help cover costs of transportation and tee shirts (scholarships are available)

Teens are welcome to volunteer to be helpers and assistants

This summer day camp is limited to 30 students, so please register your children as soon as possible.

Contact the office at First Congregational UCC (208-344-5731 or church@boisefirstucc.org) and provide the following information: Your name, names and ages of your children who will be attending, your phone number, email address or postal address (if you don't have email). Once we have received this information, we will provide you with a registration form.

The program is designed and led by the Religious Educators of Ahavath Beth Israel, First Congregational UCC and The Islamic Center of Boise. If you have any questions please speak with the following:

Ahavath Beth Israel: Rebecca Groves or Beth Harbison-208-343-6601

First Congregational UCC: Lori Conlon Khan or Rev. Kim Mislin Cran-208-344-5731

Islamic Center of Boise: KiKi Lyus or Quratulain (Q) Landis-208-429-1866